

News Advisory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

March 24, 2006

CONTACT:

Sheryl Tankersley, California State Parks
Office: (916) 651-0389, Cell: (916) 997-7989
Mike Furtney, Furtney Killeen Group
Office: (310) 476-6941, Cell: (310) 339-9195

Governor Schwarzenegger to Launch Rededication of Will Rogers State Historic Park

- WHO: Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger, California State Parks and the Will Rogers Family
- WHAT: The Will Rogers State Historic Park will be rededicated to the people of California after undergoing a three-year, $5-million restoration of the land, ranch house and barns. Governor Schwarzenegger will participate in a ceremony marking completion of the project and the reopening of the ranch house to public tours. The 186-acre ranch first became state property in 1944.
- WHEN: Saturday, March, 25, 2006 at 11 a.m.
- WHERE: Will Rogers State Historic Park, 1501 Will Rogers State Park Road, Pacific Palisades. Special media access provided for those with credentials. Please call ahead to receive an advance parking pass for quicker access. As there is a substantial lawn in front of the house please bring appropriate shoes for walking on grass, which may be wet.
- VISUALS: Photos will be available by request and at <http://www.parks.ca.gov/willrogers>

Please confirm your attendance by contacting Sheryl Tankersley at stankersley@parks.ca.gov or (916) 651-0389, or Mike Furtney at (310) 339-9195.

###